INFORMATION FROM JEFFERSON PARISH REGARDING HURRICANE KATRINA

Beginning Monday, August 28, 2005, a 24-hour curfew has been put into effect for the entire Parish of Jefferson. In addition, a seal order is in effect and no one will be allowed to enter the Parish.

Most of the Parish is without electricity, water and sewerage services. Those who have water must boil any water used for consumption until further notice.

Parish officials ask that you stay tuned to local announcements for information on the status of Jefferson Parish and when to return.
