TOYS FOR TOTS HOLIDAY CONCERT AT THE ALARIO CENTER

On Friday, December 10, 2010 at 7:30 p.m., the United States Marine Forces Reserve Band will perform a holiday concert at the Alario Center, 2000 Segnette Boulevard in Westwego as part of their Toys for Tots Tour. The concert is free and open to the public however, they ask for a donation of a new unwrapped toy. All toys collected will be distributed to children in the New Orleans area.

The United States Marine Forces Reserve Band is a 51 piece concert band, established in 1978. It is comprised of active duty Marines stationed at the Naval Support Activity Base in News Orleans. Each year, the band travels throughout the United States, performing in more than 250 concerts, parades and ceremonies, and entertaining over 6 million people.
