LAFITTE RESIDENTS CALL FOR A COMMUNITY MEETING

The Town of Jean Lafitte is receiving calls from frustrated town residents that want a community meeting regarding the oil spill.

At this time due to the overwhelming focus of containment efforts, the town officials are working to protect the waterways.

Once efforts are completed there will be a public meeting to update residents. However, at this time parish and town officials are encouraging residents to check the latest news reports or call town hall for specific questions at 689-2208.
