JEFFERSON JOINS ORLEANS IN THE SAINTS SUPER BOWL PARADE

On Tuesday, February 9, two days after the New Orleans Saints became Super Bowl XLIV Champions with a 31 - 17 victory over the Indianapolis Colts, Orleans and Jefferson Parishes are joining forces to put on a hometown victory Super Bowl Parade in their honor.

The parade will include Saints players and organization members on floats that were offered by various Carnival Krewes, along with local bands. Additionally, Jefferson Parish will provide two floats, fire trucks, its Mobile Command Center vehicle, and motorcycle units to show their support and to celebrate the Saints' historic season.

The parade will begin at 5 p.m. tomorrow. The route will begin at the Louisiana Super Dome on Poydras Avenue, turn right on Loyola Avenue, down to Howard Avenue. The parade will then continue on the uptown Carnival route, up St. Charles Avenue to Canal Street, and then towards Tchoupitoulas Street. It will end on Convention Center Boulevard.

Most Jefferson Parish Government employees will be allowed to knock off work at 3 p.m. on Tuesday, February 9, to allow them to attend the Saints Super Bowl Parade victory celebration. However, normal services to the public will be provided and essential functions will be maintained.
