

2016
J.P.R.D. WESTBANK
MINOR NATIONAL LEAGUE FOOTBALL SCHEDULE

The league will follow the same rules and regulations as the American League teams. No exceptions!

Each team will play four (4) conference games and two (2) non-conference games.

N/C – Non-conference games will not count toward league standings.

C – Conference games will count toward league standings.

The following tie-breakers will be used in all divisions if teams finish with identical conference records.

1. If two (2) teams are tied- Winner of Head to Head competition in conference play.
2. If still tied- One game playoff between the tied teams. Game to be played on a date and site to be announced.

In case three (3) or more teams finish with identical conference records, the following tie breakers will be used.

Three (3) teams tied for first place:

1. Head to Head. If one (1) of the teams involved defeats the other teams involved head to head in conference play. That team will be the first place team and the two (2) remaining teams will play a one game playoff to determine 2nd place.
2. If all three (3) teams are tied after the first tie breaker, then:
Use point differentials amongst tied teams (15 points maximum per game).

A. Team with the greatest point total will be 1st place. The two remaining teams will play in a one game playoff for 2nd place.

B. If point differentials are totaled and two teams have top points: Head to Head game in conference match-up is conference champion. The two remaining teams will play in a one game playoff for 2nd place.

C. If point differentials are totaled and three (3) teams remain tied:

The three teams will draw for a bye. The two teams that did not draw the bye will play half of a regulation game. A winner must be determined, to include unlimited number of overtime periods if needed.

The loser is out. The winner will play the team that drew the bye in another half of a regulation game. Again, a winner must be determined to include unlimited number of overtime periods if needed

Winner will be 1st place.

Loser will be 2nd place.

All games will be played on a date and site to be announced.

Three (3) teams tied for second place:

1. Head to Head. If one (1) of the teams involved defeats the other teams involved head to head in conference play that team will advance as the second place team.
2. If after tie breaker #1 is used, then conference record against first place team will determine the second place team.
3. If after tie breaker #2 is used and all three (3) teams are still tied with identical records.
*use point differentials amongst tied teams (15 points maximum per game).

A. Team with the greatest point total will be 2nd place team.

B. If point differentials are totaled and two teams have top points: Head to Head game in conference match-up will be 2nd place team.

C. If point differentials are totaled and three (3) teams remain tied: The three teams will draw for a bye. The two teams that did not draw the bye will play half of a regulation game. A winner must be determined, to include unlimited number of overtime periods if needed. The loser is out. The winner will play the team that drew the bye in another half of a regulation game. Again, a winner must be determined to include unlimited number of overtime periods if needed. Approximately 30 minutes after the first half of game. Winner will be 2nd place team.

All games will be played on a date and site to be announced.

Note: If needed, any play-off games will be played on Saturday, November 5, 2016 at a site and time to be determined.

If no play-off games are needed, the 1st and 2nd place teams will advance to the Westbank Championship on Saturday, November 12, 2016 at a site and time to be determined.
